Kids Keep Busy on School Holidays at YMCA Day Camps

Northbrook, IL: When school goes on break, kids can get bored and parents can be left scrambling for child care. To fill that time with safe, fun activities, the North Suburban YMCA offers day camps for children in grades K through 5. These flexible, engaging programs run on most days over Thanksgiving and Winter breaks from 8:00am to 6:00pm, providing an excellent option for working parents and antsy youngsters.

YMCA day camps include a variety of activities throughout the day, designed to appeal to all kinds of children and their interests. Campers take full advantage of the Y’s facility and resources, including indoor swimming, games in the gym, and art projects. They are supervised at all times by the Y’s professional staff who put the greatest priority on making each child feel welcome, secure, and encouraged.

Children also enjoy field trips to local venues, with different trips offered each day. Kids can experience live theater at the Marriott Lincolnshire, cheer on jousting knights at Medieval Times, challenge their skills at Putting Edge Glow in the Dark Mini Golf, or bounce off some energy at Sky High Trampolines, among other fun-filled destinations. For a list of specific trips and dates, contact the Y at 847 272 7250.

School Days Off Camp at the Y will be offered on the following dates:

- Thanksgiving Break: November 23

Children may be registered for single days or any combination of days, with a fee of $60/day for Y members and $75/day for non-members. All camps are held at the North Suburban YMCA, 2705 Techny Road in Northbrook. For more information or online registration, visit www.nsymca.org to view the Fall Program Guide.
