North Suburban YMCA Welcomes 80s Themed “Trivia Night 2023” on February 18

Northbrook, IL: January, 2023 The North Suburban YMCA will hold an 80s themed Trivia Night fundraiser on Saturday, February 18 from 7:00- 9:00 p.m. at its facilities at 2705 Techny Road in Northbrook. The event, now in its fifth year, benefits the Y’s Community Strong Fundraising efforts.

Open to the public, participants are invited to form teams of 8 or 10; individual entries are also welcome. Participating teams are asked to dress in 80s attire. Prizes will be awarded to the trivia winners and best costumes. Raffles will also be available.

The cost to participate in the Y’s Trivia Night event is $45 per person, $340 for a private table with a team of 8, or $400 for a private table with a team of 10. Ticket prices include beer, wine, soda, and snacks, and a chance to win raffle prizes. A trophy and prizes for 1st place winners will be provided. Babysitting is available for $15 per child with pre-registration for kids between the ages of 4 – 13. Babysitting packages are available for families with 2 or more children.

The community may also support the North Suburban YMCA by purchasing Trivia Night raffle tickets for $25 for one entry, $50 for three entries, or 7 entries for $100. Raffle prizes include gifts and gift cards from local restaurants and retail store.

"Trivia Night has become a community favorite, and our numbers grow every year with over 12 teams participating in 2022," said Kathy Fielding, CEO of the NSYMCA. "The money raised truly makes a difference and the event brings on some fierce competition."

To register for Trivia Night, visit the Y’s Trivia Night ticket page, call 847-272-7250, or visit nsymca.org.
