

Illinois Legislators Visit North Suburban YMCA

Northbrook, February 2019: Local legislators stopped by The North Suburban YMCA on February 11 to give an update on Springfield, discuss local issues, and learn more about how the Y provides an array of services for children and families in its 15 local communities. In attendance were Representative Robyn Gabel; Senator Laura Fine; Representative Bob Morgan; Senator Julie Morrison; Representative Jonathan Carroll, and Illinois State Alliance of YMCAs Executive Director, Christy Filby. The NSYMCA's President/CEO Howard Schultz led the discussion.

Celebrating its 50th anniversary with life-changing initiatives like 2 Seconds 2 Long, a major youth swim safety program and the Integrated Health Prevention Program for older adults including a Diabetes Prevention Program, the NSYMCA is in need of capital support to help expand existing programs for at-risk, low-income children and adults.

The NSYMCA is a leading provider of services to 15 North Shore communities including Buffalo Grove, Deerfield, Glencoe, Glenview, Highwood, Highland Park, Lake Bluff, Lake Forest, Lincolnshire, Libertyville, Northfield, Northbrook, Riverwoods, Wheeling, and Winnetka.
